PROFILE

I'm proficient in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Python, and MySQL. I excel at crafting responsive and visually appealing web interfaces using HTML and CSS, ensuring cross-browser compatibility and mobile optimization. My JavaScript skills allow me to create dynamic, interactive user experiences. In Python, I develop efficient, scalable backend solutions and automate tasks with ease. With MySQL, I design and manage robust databases, perform complex queries, and ensure data integrity. My combined expertise in these technologies enables me to build full-stack web applications, solve complex problems, and continuously enhance user experiences through innovative solutions and best practices.
